Team building IS NOT staff development!

What is YOUR job in this team?

Challenge 1: Does every person on YOUR TEAM know what their job is?

SHOCK FACT – very few people e.g. Know what their job on a management team is

- ✓ Protocol is important – WHO does WHAT?
- ✓ Create a job description for each person
- ✓ Have a workshop/meeting and discuss jobs/tasks in depth
- ✓ Trust the captain

RESPONSIBILITY breeds CONFIDENCE

Challenge 2: How well do you know your staff?

- ✓ Identify strong points of staff members
- ✓ Don't be afraid to give responsibility
- ✓ Take them out of their comfort zone
- ✓ Set boundaries
- ✓ Develop junior staff

Challenge 3: Are you willing to take the punch?

- ✓ Keep staff members responsible for mistakes
- ✓ Re-calculate if challenges occur - analyse
- ✓ Make a new plan

ACCOUNTABILITY the key to success

Challenge 4: When last did someone say THANK YOU to you for a job well done?

- ✓ Keep an eye on your staff – know what they do
- ✓ Look for improvement
- ✓ Say thank you
- ✓ Give a sincere compliment
- ✓ Use social media to your advantage – e.g. FB them!
- ✓ Encourage your staff to improve their qualifications - CPTD

The value of Teambuilding

Challenge 5: WHY do you want to have teambuilding?

- ✓ Choose your reason for teambuilding and presenters wisely
- ✓ Who must attend the session
- ✓ Stay focused on the end product

Have fun!

Challenge 6: Are you a leader that promotes beautiful memories?

- ✓ SHOCK FACT: You spend more waking hours per day at school, than at your home
- ✓ Create fun moments, e.g. Hire a jumping castle for the staff
- ✓ When life is bitter outside, take a sweetie
- ✓ Never be too busy to listen to them and their stories.
- ✓ How comfortable is your staffroom?

Leadership =
Is about making others better as a result of your presence and making sure that impact last in your absence
